BACK to SCHOOL

Is Coming Up!

Here are some important events and scheduling information related to Etz Hayim Preschool for this fall. We're excited about the upcoming school year and are looking forward to seeing you.

PARENT ORIENTATION

Thursday, September 4 @ 7 pm

First-timers, veterans and old-hats, please join us! There is always something new to share with our parents, whether it is your child's first or final year at Etz Hayim Preschool. This meeting will be all about filling you in on the details and answering any last-minute questions you have. We won't have designated child care, so this is a parent's only event. We'll meet downstairs in the social hall.

OPEN HOUSE

Friday, September 5 @ 10:30 am

Please come, this program will allow you—along with your child—to visit their classrooms, teachers and classmates. Kabbalat Shabbat will follow at 12:00 p.m.

"DROP-OFF" MEET and GREET

Monday, September 8 and Tuesday, September 9

Just after drop-off on the two first days of school, we'll have an informal meet and greet in the rear of the sanctuary. If you would like some company while you miss your little ones or if you would like to celebrate the first day of school with other parents, please join us for this chance to snack and schmooze with other Etz Hayim Preschool moms and dads.
